

Professional Indemnity Sub-Contractors No Claims Declaration

(To Be Completed by the Sub-Contractor)

Notice to Insured

(Pursuant to the provisions of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984)

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with us, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and if so, the terms and conditions on which we will insure you.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Information you do not need to give

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we already know or should know in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer;
- that has been indicated by us as not necessary for us to know.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the contract in respect of a claim, or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of voiding the contract from its beginning.

Declaration

I/We hereby declare that after full enquiry of all principals, directors and staff that I/we are not aware of any claim or circumstance which could give rise to a claim or loss against ourselves or the Named Insured's policy under which I/we are seeking to be indemnified.

I/We declare and warrant that all the statements and particulars here given are true and that no information whatever has been withheld which might influence a prudent Insurer's judgment and the acceptance of this Declaration. Should the above particulars alter in any way, I/We will advise Insurers as soon as possible.

I/We understand that failure to disclose any material facts which would be likely to influence the acceptance and assessment of this Declaration may result in Insurers refusing to provide indemnity or voiding the policy in every respect.

I/We hereby agree that this Declaration shall be the basis of the contract between me/us and Insurers.

Privacy

Woodina Underwriting Agency Pty Ltd is committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information you provide us. Woodina collects, uses and retains your personal information in accordance with the National Privacy Principles.

We need to collect the personal information on the applicable proposal form to consider your application for insurance and to determine the premium (if your application is accepted) when you are applying for, changing or renewing an insurance policy with us. This information will also be used if you lodge a claim under your policy. We may also need to request additional information from you in connection with your application or a claim.

If you do not provide us with this information, or any additional information we request, we may not be able to process your application or offer you insurance cover or respond to any claim.

We may disclose the personal information we collect:

- To our relevant employees involved in delivering our services;
- If your insurance broker collects this form from you, to that broker;
- To facilitators such as legal firms, professional experts such as accountants, actuaries, engineers and technology experts;
- To the insurance companies with whom we transact business;
- To the Lloyd's Syndicates we represent (which are located in the United Kingdom);
- To insurance reference bordereau or credit reference bordereau;
- To reinsurers or reinsurance brokers (which may include reinsurers located outside of Australia).

Where we do disclose the information as above the recipient may hold the information in accordance with its own privacy statement / policies. Those may include, by way of example, disclosing the information to and storage of that information by its associated entities which may be located overseas. Full details can be found on the recipient's website. However, we can also provide a copy to you on request.

We may also be required to provide your personal information to others for purposes of public safety and law enforcement and if required by law or by a law enforcement body to do so.

You may request access to your personal information, and where necessary, correct any errors in this information (some restrictions and costs may apply).

By completing and returning the proposal form and/or providing us with any additional information in connection with your application, you agree to us using and disclosing your information as set out above. This consent to the use and disclosure of your personal information remains valid unless you alter or revoke it by giving us written notice.

From time to time, we may use your personal information to send you details of new insurance products or other insurance related information that may be of interest to you. If you do not wish to receive such information, please contact our General Manager or Operations Manager on (07) 3222 9400.

If you would like to access a copy of your personal information or you wish to correct or update your personal information, please also contact us on (07) 3222 9400 or email info@woodina.com.au.
